Recreational Uses

Join other women landowners for an enjoyable walk through woods and fields in Hubbardston, followed by an afternoon tea while exchanging questions, problems, and strategies for landowners. Free and open to all women landowners, especially those with 10 or more acres. Registration is required through the link on the NCLT Facebook page or by emailing info@northcountylandtrust.org. Directions will be provided by email upon registration. This event is funded by the MA DCR Working Forest Initiative.
