

Mariah Fogg is the President of the Early Conservation Career Network Organizing Committee. She works as the New England Program Coordinator for the Land Trust Alliance. She grew up in the Southern Appalachians and developed a passion for conserved lands at a young age. She received her bachelor's degree in environmental studies from UNC Asheville and a master's in Wildlife Conservation and Management from Unity College. Her work with the Alliance began in 2024. Before that, she was the Community Conservation Manager at the Berkshire Natural Resources Council. Her conservation career began as a summer intern in 2016. She then served as the Community Engagement Coordinator through MassLIFT AmeriCorps (now TerraCorps).
