

2025 Excellence in Conservation Award Nomination Form

The Massachusetts Land Trust Coalition Excellence in Conservation Award is presented by MLTC's Conservation Advisory Council to a land trust or collaboration of conservation partners in recognition of a specific project, completed within the past two years, which demonstrates excellence in any aspect of land conservation work, advances the cause of land conservation in a creative and substantive way, and/or serves as an inspiration for other conservation organizations in Massachusetts.

The inaugural presentation of this award will take place at the 2025 Massachusetts Land Conservation Conference on Friday, March 21, 2025, at UMass Amherst.

Nomination deadline: December 10, 2024

Nominated projects should demonstrate excellence in one or more aspects of land conservation work (including land protection, stewardship, community programs or public policy) and advance the cause of land conservation in a creative and substantive way. In addition, they may serve as a replicable model for other conservation organizations in Massachusetts. Ways that a project may be evaluated as meeting these criteria include, but are not limited to:

- Exhibiting significant size, scope or complexity
- Demonstrating substantial and lasting impact
- Addressing timely opportunities or threats facing the cause of land conservation
- Involving creative or innovative approaches or partnerships
- Having the potential to inspire other conservation efforts in Massachusetts
